

Peter Pan pinocchio

This represents childhood itself, innocent and joyful. The character represents a combination of two iconic fairytale characters: pinocchio and Peter Pan. He is flying towards an exploited child to free him from the strings which force him to work.

pinocchio at work

This represents child labour. pinocchio, forced to sew a shirt for a prison inmate, is being controlled by a faceless employer who manipulates him with the strings of a puppeteer.

CAP
VAL
SP. Tia COLO

pinocchio the student

This represents awareness
of the world around us,
which can only be built through
a good education.
The boy sits at a school
desk holding a copy of Oliver Twist and is doubly shocked:

the tales of hardship and abuse
told in the novel are echoed by the reality
of the child labourer
standing
across from him.

NON SI
BUTTANO I MOZZICONI PER
TERRA!
CI SONO I
CESTINI!!
Noi studenti

NOI UNATIANO
SI DÀ !!!

LOVE

